MEET YOUR GUIDE

I'm Maeve, the creatrix of Wild Soma.

My path into this work has been anything but linear. I come from a background in performance and artistry, erotic work, somatics, sacred sexuality, and feminine wisdom.

For the past several years, I've devoted myself to studying the body, mythology, sexuality, ritual, and the old feminine mysteries.

I believe deeply in the body as a place of knowing. In myth as something we can enter. And in the feminine as something that cannot be fully understood from the mind. She has to be experienced.

Wild Honey was born from that devotion.

Over these three months, I'll be walking beside you as we descend, meet what has been exiled, and slowly make our way back toward desire, pleasure, sovereignty, and love.

I'm here as your guide, your storyteller, your ritual keeper, and sometimes the woman holding the lantern while we walk into the dark.

Welcome to Wild Honey.

A 3-MONTH FEMININE INITIATION PROGRAM

Wild Honey is an invitation to remember.
This is a 3-month online feminine initiation, where we will reweave ourselves into the feminine cosmology.

"Much of the power and passion of the feminine has been dormant in the underworld in exile for thousands of years."

— Sylvia Brinton Perera, Descent to the Goddess

She knows.
Somewhere underneath the performing and the pleasing and the producing.
She knows there is something older in her. Something that worshiped through the body. That bled, and danced, and called it sacred.

WHAT THIS IS

Twelve weeks of live teaching, somatic practice, sacred ritual, and feminine mystery.

This program was intentionally woven around three three archetypal gates.

Each month is a threshold.

Emmergin on the otherside with a body you have come home to.

A sovereign self you have excavated and reclaimed.

A relationship to your own feminine power that is rooted, alive, and yours.

The nectar of the soul.

THE MEDICINE

- mythology
- embodiment
- sacred sexuality
- cyclical wisdom
- shadow work
- erotic energy
- plant medicine (no psychedelic)
- somatic practice
- the ancient feminine lineage

THE INITIATION

MONTH ONE

We will explore the descent as the feminine spiritual path.

The first month is a descent into the self. The removal of the versions of yourself you built for survival & for approval.

We meet the body as sacred land. We move through the womb, sacred dark, the grief and the gold buried in the places you stopped looking.

MONTH TWO

We meet the parts of you that were cast out. .
The sexuality that was too much.
The anger that was inconvenient.
The power that made people uncomfortable.
We sit with the wounds that centuries of fear left in the feminine body. We will untangle the split between the "good woman" you learned to be and the dangerous, luminous one you actually are.

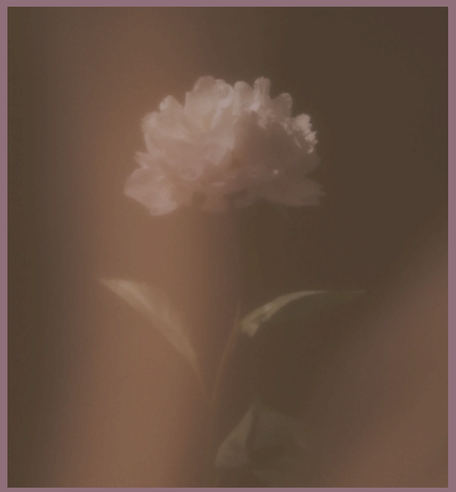

MONTH THREE

Returning as something older, sweeter, wiser.
This month is devoted to pleasure as a spiritual practice, beauty as a form of power, and sacred sexuality as the thread that connects you to life itself.
This is where the woman who has been through the fire begins to live differently.
Finally able to taste the full spectrum of the honey you've harvested.

"DAT ROSA MEL APIBUS"

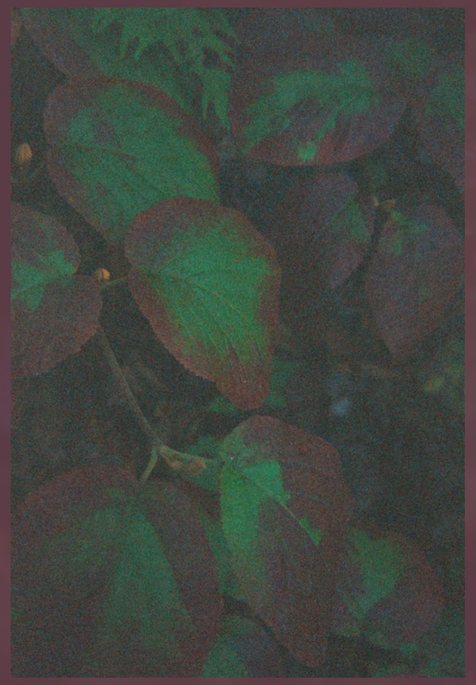

The rose gives honey to the bees

The divine is available, but only through inner work does she turn what is received into the wild honey of alchemy.

HOW IT WORKS

Each week inside Wild Honey include

- A 90min live teaching call — where we go deep into mythology, history, feminine science, and the esoteric traditions that have been guarding these secrets for millennia
- A weekly practice — somatic and embodiment-based, woven into daily life.
- A weekly ritual — sacred ceremony designed to move what the mind alone cannot shift

Support Along the Journey

- One-on-One Coaching— One private session with me, to use at any point during the program for deeper guidance and support.
- The Hive —An intimate space to connect, share, and be supported by the other women walking the Wild Honey journey with you.

IF SOMETHING IN YOU IS BUZZING...

- You are done performing wellness and ready to actually inhabit your body.
- You have circled the edges of sacred sexuality, shadow work, and feminine spirituality long enough. You know it is time to descend into the abyss.
- You want to understand your erotic energy as an original source of feminine power, wisdom, and spiritual connection.
- You are ready to reclaim sovereignty over yourself; your body, your desires, your choices, and the way you live your life.

WILD HONEY IS FOR YOU

This is a commitment to yourself. To be initiated into the feminine mystery and to surrender to the change it will bring to your life.
